10-MINUTE PITCH

Future of towns is at stake during district council's LDF panel meet

By ANDERS LARSSON

anders@thedevonnews.co.uk

THE town councils of Axminster, Honiton, Seaton and Ottery today have 10 minutes each to pitch their long-term town plans to East Devon District Council (EDDC).

A lot is at stake — as summed up by Axminster Local Development Framework (LDF) spokesperson and town councillor Jeremy Walden, who recently said: "I dread the thought that the future of Axminster is decided in 10 minutes."

Today's 10-minute presentations will be made to EDDC's LDF Panel.

EDDC is undertaking "an exhaustive review" of its blueprint for the district's development over the next 15 years. As part of the process, town councils have been invited to make a presentation at today's meeting of the LDF Panel.

The effectiveness of today's presentations will not be known for a while, however, as panel members' main aim is to gather information.

An EDDC spokesperson explained: "For each town we are allowing a ten-minute presentation and there will then be questions of town council representatives and panel discussion."

"There will also be the opportunity for any third party to present to the panel, with potential for discussion."

"We are not suggesting that specific decisions are taken — the ones will be on information gathering."

A total of 30 minutes have been set aside on the agenda for each town.

Apart from the four towns mentioned, representatives by councils and interested parties from Sidmouth, Exmouth and Budleigh Salterton will also be made.

Town councillor Jeremy Walden has been selected to speak on behalf of Axminster Town Council.

When selected by fellow councillors to speak, he said: "I dread the thought that the future of Axminster is decided in 10 minutes."

A burning issue in Axminster is the need for a north-south relief road as outlined in Axminster Community Enterprise's Vision of Axminster 2030 document.

The presentation will be largely based on this document.

Seaton Town Council was finalising its presentation as Paduan's Floor went to press.

Town councillor Val Christmas will address the LDF panel today, and the town council has produced a five-page document for the occasion.

The planning committee was meeting as Paduan's Floor went to press on Monday evening, and it is possible that amendments to the document were agreed.

One of many points in the document is that underdeveloped land should be protected.

Ottery St Mary Town Council has also produced a five-page document.

The presentation will be made by mayor Glyn Dobson, and one point made by the town council is that a new site for The King's School must be found as soon as possible.

Honiton Town Council has produced a 16-page submission which, among other things, says that employment land should be prioritised before any further housing development.

An EDDC spokesperson said: "Under the new coalition government, the name of the document that every council must devise has changed to the Local Plan."

"But the aims and the challenges remain the same — to draw up a policy that provides the jobs and homes that people need and supports a thriving local economy, whilst protecting east Devon's uniquely beautiful environment, much of which is officially labelled as Areas of Outstanding Natural Beauty, for residents and visitors to enjoy."

"Overseeing this work and making policy recommendations to the full council is a group of EDDC members called the LDF Panel."

The LDF Panel meeting is open to the public and starts at 2pm at EDDC headquarters, The Knowle, Sidmouth.

♦ MAYOR of Ottery St Mary Glyn Dobson cutting the ribbon, with Anitra Lockwood, the winner of the bridge naming competition, Councillor Frances Newth, the vice-chairman of East Devon District Council and Devon County Council chairman Jeremy Yabsley of East Devon District Council

Town celebrates bridge opening after a decade

A PIECE of modern engineering has been given a name from Ottery's past.

The opening of Coleridge Bridge on Bank Holiday Monday marked the realisation of a 10-year ambition, according to local authorities.

Coleridge Bridge provides a link for cyclists and pedestrians between the Thorne Farm Way housing development and the town centre.

Several organisations were involved in the bridge building project, East Devon District Council (EDDC) being one.

A spokesperson for EDDC said: "The near £1million project was made possible by collaboration between local councils, Sustrans, the Big Lottery Fund, the Department of Transport, the Environment Agency and Section 106 contributions from developers."

Ottery mayor Glyn Dobson officially opened the bridge, but the event was so much more than someone saying a few words and cutting a ribbon.

Ottery Town Council made it a day to remember by laying on a programme of family-orientated activities at the nearby Land of Canaan.

Speaking prior to the event, Devon County Council chairman Jeremy Yabsley said: "I'm sure that people in Ottery St Mary and the wider community are pleased that this important cycle route has now become a reality."

"It will no doubt become a great asset to the area for leisure cycling, commuting and for pupils cycling to school."

"By providing a safer route away from traffic, it may also encourage more people to walk or cycle — which will help tackle congestion around the town."

Also speaking prior to the event, Ottery mayor Glyn Dobson said: "At last this long-awaited project is completed and ready for use, providing a safe footpath and cycle route for all of the public."

The EDDC spokesperson said: "The new bridge, an impressive example of modern engineering, is part of a series of new links being made possible thanks to a £50million award by the Big Lottery Fund to Sustrans following a public vote in 2007."

Sustrans' area manager for Devon, Peter Grainger, commented: "Local communities in Ottery are now linked to work-places, schools and the local hospital and these new routes will make a real difference to how people make their local journeys in Ottery St Mary."

As part of the project, there will also be a portrait bench in the Land of Canaan featuring poet Samuel Taylor Coleridge, an Ottery St Mary pixie and a tar barrel roller.

The characters were chosen by the local community, and the bench was funded by the Big Lottery Fund's award to Sustrans.

Katy Hallett, Sustrans' director for arts, added: "The portrait bench is a fantastic way to make the new walking and cycling routes more attractive and interesting, helping people to enjoy making their journeys on foot or by bike."

Thousands at annual fayre

THOUSANDS of people attended the 13th annual Chardstock Street Fayre on Saturday, September 3rd.

The all day event was opened by Jonathan Milford at 11am and went on late into the evening.

Highlights of the fayre included a falconry display, tug of war, classic car display, musical entertainment and a performance by Britain's Got Talent contestant Merlin Cadogan.

Since 1999 the event has raised more than £34,000 for local, national and international charities.

Nominated charities this year include Chardstock Park Trust, Chardstock Community Hall and Shelterbox.

For more about the event and pictures see next week's edition.

Crews called to car pile-up

FIRE crews from Honiton were called to reports of a multi-car pile-up on the A303 near Upottery.

The incident took place on Saturday, September 3rd just before 3pm and involved five cars.

The crews used small tools to deal with the incident and assisted the ambulance crew who were also at the scene.

Unique footage finds a way on to YouTube

By ANDERS LARSSON
anders@hindlenews.co.uk

UNIQUE footage of life at a former public school has been recovered and put in the public domain.

Life at Allhallows School, Rousdon, circa 1970 is laid bare in a film by then student George Hayter.

Mr Hayter was 18 years old at the time and he used a clockwork cine camera borrowed from his parents.

He went on to become a BBC TV technician and journalist — and showed early promise when shooting the five-minute plus film.

Mr Hayter had more or less forgotten about the film when he was invited to a reunion.

Organisers asked everyone to bring photos from their days at Allhallows School.

Mr Hayter said: "I don't have any photos but I thought of the film. I retrieved the film from a long-forgotten cardboard box in response to a request for memorabilia for a school reunion."

He managed to recover the cardboard box from the depths of a crowded cupboard and proceeded to put the film on YouTube.

Mr Hayter, who lives in Southampton, said: "The silent film shows boys eating in the dining hall, larking about in a study and strolling off to the bushes for a cigarette."

"When the colour film was made, in the summer of 1970, the punishment for smoking at the posh boarding school was the cane from the headmaster. But the grainy footage suggests that the prospect of a painful beating did little to discourage boys having a puff."

"Pupils at the former school are seen indulging in nicotine without a care in the world. The 8mm footage also shows boys strolling on what was effectively the school's private beach, which lay at the bottom of the landscaped, 500 feet below the school buildings."

The school closed in the 1990s but Mr Hayter's film is likely to be a hit at the reunion, to be held at the home of a former student on Saturday, September 10th.

He published the film under the title Allhallows Public School 1970 at www.youtube.com. View the video at www.youtube.com/watch?v=5JpMzqdnf_8.

Farm venue for dog show

BEECHWOOD Farm in Feniton is set to be the venue for a dog show on Saturday, September 17th.

The event is being organised by Just Dogs Southwest and will run from 10.30am until 4pm.

Activities taking place will include dog agility, obedience demonstrations, heel work to music and various classes.

Judging starts at 11.30am and rosettes will be handed out for the top four in each class.

Greyhound West of England will also be holding a separate show from 1pm.

Other attractions will include a raffle, trade stands and refreshments.

For more information contact Helen Perryman on 01404 861587.

Barn blaze

FIRE crews from Colyton, Seaton, Honiton and Exeter were called to reports of a hay barn fire in Southleigh near Colyton.

The incident took place on Sunday, September 4th just after 3pm.

Approximately 15 hay bales were alight and the fire crews used two hose reels and a mechanical digger to extinguish the flames.

The contents of the barn was moved outdoors to prevent overheating.

Photos can be easily viewed and purchased online at www.axminster-today.co.uk

◆ A GARDEN party at Axminster Community Hospital had to be moved indoors because of wet weather. The 1940s-style garden party was held in the afternoon of Saturday, August 20th. Apart from having a good time, another reason for holding the party was to raise awareness about dementia. Pictured are some of the party revellers

Woman found safe by police

A WOMAN who went missing from her home in Honiton was found in Exeter a few hours later.

Police issued an appeal for information when the woman, in her mid 30s and described by police as "high-risk missing" couldn't be found at about 8am on Wednesday, August 31st.

A police spokesperson said at the time: "Police have serious concerns for her welfare."

Police issued an updated bulletin at 11.35am on the same day to say the woman had been found in Exeter and would be taken for a check-up at hospital.

Crews attend one-car crash

FIRE crews from Ottery St Mary and Exeter were called to reports of a one-car crash in West Hill.

The incident took place just before 5pm on Thursday, August 25th.

The car had overturned and one woman was treated by the ambulance service at the scene.

The casualty was taken to hospital by road.

Double award for good work

By ANDERS LARSSON
anders@indienews.co.uk

TWO women's community engagements have won them each an award.

The double award presentation took place in Axminster and saw tourist information centre manager Sarah Crook and former college student Christina Squire presented with this year's Les Knight Award and Bill Knapman Award respectively.

Both awards are given by The Rotary Club of Axminster. The Les Knight Award is for services to the community and The Bill Knapman award is for services to youth in the community.

Both winners enjoyed numerous nominations and Sarah was chosen because of her tireless efforts promoting Axminster in her capacity as tourist information centre manager.

Christina — aka Chrissy — has just left Axe Valley Community College, where she was involved in several projects.

Among other things, she was the lead organiser of a recent Olympics festival at the college.

She was also one of the college's Gold Young Ambassadors, a role which saw her engage in sport at various levels by attending conferences, motivating students and more.

The presentations were made during a Rotary function at Axminster Conservative Club on Friday, August 19th.

Apart from certificates, the awardees received £100 each, which they will give to a worthy cause of their choice.

Sarah chose The Parkinson's Society and Christina opted for 1st Seaton Rainbows.

Council reviews its polling stations

HONITON could have three new polling stations when it is time for the next local or general election.

East Devon District Council (EDDC) has carried out a review of polling districts and stations — and a report has been produced for a cabinet meeting on Wednesday, September 7th.

The report flags up issues with three Honiton venues used in the past.

The Red Cross Hall is one of them and the report states: "Although the hall is highly suitable for the purpose, difficulties have arisen in relation to booking issues."

"Littleton Primary School in Honiton Bottom Road is being investigated as a possible alternative, though the disruption created is fully appreciated."

The report didn't elaborate on the alleged booking issues, and it is understood the hall will close in any case.

Mackerness Hall is also mentioned in the report, which states: "The town council and others have raised comments regarding Mackerness Hall in that it is cold and there is no convenient parking."

"A possible alternative could be The Masonic Hall opposite the cattle market car park, and other sites are being investigated."

East Devon Business Centre's location has caused concern and a replacement has already been confirmed, the report stating: "Complaints have been received from electors and elected members regarding the use of East Devon Business Centre."

"This was not an ideal venue to be used as a polling station and a venue closer to the town centre would be more convenient for electors."

"The Heathfield Inn, Walnut Road, which is within the community and is on a bus route will be used at the next elections."

Rare ladybird is discovered

CONSERVATIONISTS and naturalists are celebrating the discovery of a rare ladybird species.

The discovery, thought to be the first of its kind for almost 60 years, was made on Axe Estuary Wetlands by Richard Comont.

He is a PhD student at the Centre for Ecology and Hydrology and part of the UK Ladybird Survey.

He found a 13-spot ladybird larva during a recent BioBlitz event organised by East Devon District Council.

Richard said: "As soon as I saw the larva I was fairly sure it was a 13-spot — it's something I've dreamt of finding."

"It's such a significant discovery that I took it back to rear it to adulthood to make absolutely sure."

An EDDC spokesperson said: "The 13-spot ladybird, Hippodamia 13-punctata, was always a rare ladybird in Britain and was thought to have gone extinct in the country in 1952."

"There have been 10 confirmed sightings in the last decade along the south coast of Britain which sparked hopes that this beetle might be on the verge of making a comeback."

"This discovery is the first breeding record of the beetle since 1952 and may well be the first British larva ever found."

Andrew Whitehouse, conservation officer for South West England at Buglife — The Invertebrate Conservation Trust, said: "How exciting to rediscover this ladybird breeding in Devon."

Pupils' poster contest

SIX primary schools in the area took part in Axminster and District Lions Club's Annual Peace Poster Competition.

The competition feeds into the national competition, so the winners from each school are looking forward to the next phase.

The posters were judged for their artistic merit and for their expression of the competition theme — Children Know Peace.

Anne Hardman of Axminster and District Lions Club said: "Some incredible art work was produced. The decisions were incredibly difficult."

"This year all pupils who took part received a certificate of achievement. The winners from each school will face strong competition through the district, national and international rounds."

"One grand winner will receive a large cash prize and a trip to New York with two family members."

"We wish them all the best of luck in the next round."

Entries from participating primary schools in Shute, Axminster and Kilmington are on display in Axminster Library.

Mrs Ethelston's and St Andrew's primary schools will display their entries in-house.

The top three winners were as follows; Axminster Community Primary School: 1st Lottie Rouse, 2nd Charlie Prill, 3rd Annabel Blockwell; Kilmington Primary School: 1st Jemima Gambier, 2nd James Cable, 3rd Katie Bastable.

Shute Primary School: 1st Hannah-May Westdorp, 2nd Emilia Anning, 3rd Charlie Wheeler; Mrs Ethelston's Church of England School, Uplyme: 1st Sian Harper, 2nd Cody Bowditch, 3rd Edward Moore.

St Andrews Church of England Primary School, Chardstock: 1st Bradley Hempstead, 2nd Nadine Legg, 3rd Rowan Ellis and Musbury Primary School: 1st Rory Kinlan, 2nd Kyrin Kinlan, 3rd Annabelle Stidwell.

Company's staff flock to take part in health research

◆ DEBBIE Keetch, a research nurse from the Exeter 10,000 project (left), with Rebekah Hunter from Axminster Tool Centre. Forty members of staff from Axminster Tool Centre gave up their time to volunteer for the research project

By ANDERS LARSSON
anders@indlenews.co.uk

FORTY Axminster Tool Centre staff volunteered to provide samples for a medical research project.

The Exeter 10,000 project is run by Peninsula Clinical Research Facility (PCRF), which is part of Peninsula College of Medicine and Dentistry (PCMD) in Exeter.

The project aims to compile a research register of 10,000 individuals from the Exeter and east Devon areas.

Having the register will enable researchers at PCMD to investigate common diseases such as diabetes and help improve diagnosis, treatment and prevention.

A PCRF spokesperson explained: "Diabetes is a major cause of morbidity and mortality and has been estimated to account for 10 per cent of NHS spending and this is likely to increase.

"Therefore, understanding how to prevent complications is a major health priority, and looking at people who do not have diabetes, and its associated complications, is an effective way to identify factors that mean some people go on to develop complications and others do not."

Three research nurses recently set up a mobile clinic at Axminster Power Tool Centre to collect blood and urine samples from 40 volunteers.

In addition, the volunteers also went through a basic health assessment.

PCRF manager Dr Gillian Baker said: "The response from Axminster Tool Centre's employees to participate in the Exeter 10,000 project was fantastic.

"They have helped local researchers achieve their mission, which is to advance the healthcare of tomorrow.

"The company has not only donated employee time but this year is supporting the charity Peninsula Foundation in its aim to provide diabetes research funding and patient support through the DIRECT diabetes project.

"Projects like the Exeter 10,000 project and the local charity Peninsula Foundation DIRECT diabetes project would not be possible without the support from our local community.

"We are grateful for Axminster Tool Centre's support and participation in improving the healthcare of the future."

Peninsula Foundation's Direct project supports vital diabetes research to improve the understanding and management of the condition.

The charity makes donations to PCMD and to the MacLeod Diabetes and Endocrine Centre in Exeter.

It has provided the PCRF with a mobile clinic, which is used for outreach activities such as collecting for the Exeter 10,000 project.

The total number recruited to the Exeter 10,000 project has topped the 3,000 mark.

More information about how individuals and businesses can get involved with the project is available online at www.penisulacr.org.

The Peninsula Medical School is a joint entity of the University of Exeter, the University of Plymouth and the NHS in the South West of England, and a partner of the Combined Universities in Cornwall.

Parking note is confusing

EDITOR — I am confused by Sandra Semple's letter published in Pulman's View edition of the August 16th, 2011, where she states Seaton has on-street parking meters.

Where are these situated?
The only ones I know of are along the seafront, as they also are in Exmouth and have been for some years.

Sidmouth couldn't have them as the road along their seafront is too narrow to allow parking.

In all my years holidaying around the country I was always expecting to pay for parking on sea-fronts and beauty-spots, when it was free it was a bonus, so in these days where councils and governments are trying to save money, what is wrong with paying to park along Seaton sea-front?

Don't forget it all goes into the council coffers and keeps our community charge down.

Ms Semple also wonders why Seaton has only been allocated a smaller amount for road repairs than Tiverton, Bideford, Exmouth, Newton Abbott and Culmpton.

Does she not think that these larger amounts are because all these towns are far larger than little Seaton, and therefore has more through traffic whereas Seaton is very nearly a cul-de-sac.

Has she not travelled that far out of Seaton to know this?

Councils need to realise development isn't suited

EDITOR — When will Devon's town, district and county council members realise that Devon lanes are not suited to housing developments?

When will the same bodies realise that a village of 30 – 40 households is ample; the people, young and old, need to be able to feel and behave like a community?

When are the people of this country going to realize that: planting houses on good agricultural land — suitable for crops and livestock — will end up with their 'stomachs complaining that their throats are cut'?

All humans require the carbohydrates supplied in our cereals and fruits; those crops that have too high a fungal spore content due to the weather can be safely fed to livestock; and our grazed grasslands are needed to maintain both stock and our valued wildlife.

For protein we need either: to eat some of our home-grown livestock, or import protein-rich pulses and soya from warmer countries to achieve a balanced diet with sufficient levels of Lysine — one of the essential dietary amino acids.

Importation means that more species-rich habitat, in third world countries, has to be cleared for protein rich crops to export to the west — hardly fair.

Thanks for the continued party support

EDITOR — We would like to express our sincere thanks to everyone who has supported our annual garden party and barbecue over the past few years.

On August 13th we held our last, and perhaps the best, certainly in terms of the weather.

We succeeded in raising, through very generous donations, the sum of £810 which once again has been given to FORCE cancer support centre at the Royal Devon and Exeter Hospital.

Our total donations over the past six years has exceeded £5,500 for which we thank all our friends and family who have supported us so well.

We hope you have all enjoyed it as much as we have.

Many thanks to our children and grandchildren for their much appreciated help.

Madeline and Brian Wilkes
Raymonds Hill

Wake-up to 'unaffordable housing'

EDITOR — The current wrangles in East Devon District Council on appropriate new housing numbers for the district has at times lapsed into emotional and moral blackmail when the subject of affordable housing comes up.

The other side of affordable housing is of course the huge stock of unaffordable housing.

A sliding, windfall tax on properties at the point of sale might be a much better and fairer way of adjusting this side of the equation downwards.

Nationally Eric Pickles champions those who own mansions — they shouldn't be taxed unfairly 'as they are hard working people'.

Property speculation and over-zealous loans not hard work fed property price inflation Eric.

Nearer to home there is pressure to provide more and more affordable housing.

This is at the expense of those renting and in the case of the recent build in Sidmouth in the AONB at the expense of the local environment and wildlife.

Just because you may be part of the 'supposed lucky majority' councillors, if you really care about the younger people in the area and where are they going to live, then it's hands in the pockets and initiate a mortgage fund for those less affluent and who need a home of their own.

Stop going on about market forces and its victims — whilst at the same time, as sitting back and enjoying the benefits.

Pulman's View from the churches

With NIGEL SPELLER

SMALLER rural churches have for some time sought seasonal services to suit them. Now, Seasons and Festivals of the Agricultural Year – Common Worship liturgy, is available online as a pdf from www.churchofengland.org/media/41161/tsagear.pdf.

More rural news from the Commission for Rural Communities can be read in their newsletter at: www.defra.gov.uk/crc/news-and-events/short-reports-and-updates/crc-newsletter-august-2011.

Thirdly, we are reminded that Anglican Churches are automatically regarded as charities which means they have to comply with the Charity Commission's rules for such trustees. These rules may now be obtained online at www.charity-commission.gov.uk.

Exeter Diocese companion diocese of Thika in Kenya has asked for our prayers. There is growing unrest in the area due to the escalating prices of basic commodities and rationing.

Please pray for God's strength for those affected by the food crisis throughout east Africa and for the drought conditions to ease, and for urgency among international donors so a quick response can prevent more hardship.

Concerned as we must be for fellow Christians world wide, this week we are glad to report that in Libya there are 4,000 to 5,000 Christians — mainly immigrants. The Anglican Church of Christ the King in Tripoli is part of the Diocese of Egypt, and occupies a building some 300 years old.

Congregations in normal times number at least 250 each week. The current Anglican chaplain is Father Daoud an Egyptian who studied in England.

The Roman Catholics have a cathedral in Tripoli where their Bishop is Giovanni Martellis, and there is little news of them. In Benghazi the Roman church is said to continue a pastoral ministry.

To conclude Ray Hunter from Axminster writes: "I have just listened to a recording on 'Being a Christian in tough times,' and we most certainly are going through tough times at the moment in the world and in our country.

"The speaker based his talk on scriptures from the book of Hebrews about the great men of faith, and running the race with perseverance.

"His three main points were – Hear the Heroe's, Look at Jesus, and Believe the Bible. As we move forward in these uncertain times we can do no better than take on board these three principles.

"Look to the example of those who have gone before us in times of great difficulty. Look at Jesus, the life he led, the example he set and the sacrifice he made for us.

"Believe the Bible as it provides the inspiration, truth, hope, insight, plumb line for our lives and guidance for the difficult times we face."

◆ AN Uplyme zumbathon raised more than £1,000 for the Sam Nunn Appeal. The appeal has been set up to raise about £70,000 towards cancer treatment overseas for the local teenager. Zumba can be described as a dance-based workout system, and the three-hour event took place on Friday, August 12th in Uplyme Village Hall

Council stresses deadline of new 'exciting' ideas

SEATONIANS have until early October to come forward with ideas for Seaford Gardens.

The large water fountain in Seaford Gardens, which is owned and maintained by East Devon District Council (EDDC), has been broken for some time and the council says it cannot afford to maintain and fix it.

As a result, EDDC has decided to replace the fountain with "an exciting new feature".

An EDDC spokesperson said: "What you would like Seaford Gardens to look like?

"The council has a budget of £38,000, which was originally allocated to repair the fountain, but which will now be used to provide an exciting new feature for the area, which residents can help design and choose.

"As the area is designated as a garden, any proposal would need to be sympathetic to its surroundings, and it would also need to take into account future maintenance and restoration costs.

"For example a skate park would not be appropriate at this location due to it being near residential flats.

"Uses for the area such as an enhanced picnic site, public performance amphitheatre, small cafe concession or similar would be suitable.

"Please send your ideas to EDDC. This can be a description or a picture, or both. Once all the proposals are in EDDC will check which ones fit the criteria and could be carried out within the budget.

"When there is a short-list of eligible projects people will be asked to vote on which idea they want to happen."

Proposals should be sent to: Communications, East Devon District Council, Knowle, Station Road, Sidmouth, EX10 8HL or: jbuckley@eastdevon.gov.uk.

Include your contact details so officers can get in touch. All ideas must be received by Friday, October 7th.

TONY JACKSON

Hawk eyes aviary prey

A CRASH and flutter of wings at first light from the aviary close to the house revealed an immature hen sparrowhawk calmly sitting on the aviary roof, inspecting the terrified inhabitants inside.

This hawk is becoming increasingly impudent and now regularly seeks her first kill of the day at my expense. Despite banging the window, she took not the slightest notice and remained poised in the hope that she could snatch a finch through the wire. So far half-a-dozen aviary birds have been killed in this fashion.

Eventually, I had to go outside to usher her away but I have little doubt that she will be back. There are, literally, dozens of house sparrows on feeders round the other side of the house, yet she never seems to make an aerial assault on them.

An unusual sighting yesterday evening. Sitting in a high seat, watching for deer, a mature roe buck gradually fed towards me until it was within 20 yards. It carried a good six-point head and was probably middle-aged. Suddenly, a young two-year-old buck, appeared under the seat, stamped a hoof in anger and then charged the older buck.

Both squared up to each other, and though there was no clash of antlers, this was an unusual sight at this time of year, especially as the rut has been over for several weeks. Eventually, both decided to retire and slowly grazed away.

Meanwhile, from the Axe Estuary newsletter, assembled by David Walters, I note that no fewer than 36 little egrets were counted at Colyford Common on August 15th, while a young cuckoo was seen and photographed feeding on caterpillars. Meanwhile, a species of ladybird which had long been thought nearly extinct has now been found on these wetlands.

A small breeding colony of the 13-spot ladybird has been discovered, the first breeding record since 1952, although there have been 10 confirmed sightings along the south coast in the past decade. This ladybird sports between seven and 15 black spots on a background of orange-red, but is smaller than the more familiar seven spot ladybird, as well as being longer and thinner. Let's hope these rare ladybirds do not fall victim to the aggressive and increasingly widespread and invasive harlequin beetle.

On Wednesday, September 14th a Geology and Wild About Weymouth walk will take place at King Barrow Quarries Nature Reserve at Portland. Visitors will be able to see the fossilised remains of pre-historic trees, fossils of oysters and cockles, old mining tunnels and ancient stone walls. The reserve is also teeming with wildlife, including chalkhill blues and Adonis butterflies, linnets, meadow pipits, whitethroats and little owls and, of course, wild flowers and lichens.

The walk will take place at 11am to 1pm and visitors should meet at the entrance to the reserve by the name stone, just off the A354. Booking is essential, so contact Samantha Dallimore on 01305 816546.

From stone quarries to the beach. Investigation and surveys have shown that seaweed and debris washed up by the tides provide food for insects and bugs, which in turn attract mammals such as pygmy shrews, foxes, hares, bats and even hedgehogs. Spiders, centipedes and predatory beetles make the beach home, including some very rare species.

However, beach owners can cause immense damage when cleaning beaches with machines, as they remove the top 15cm of sand and with it all the wildlife and, as a result, those responsible for cleaning beaches are being asked to do so by hand in order to protect wildlife. In order to discover how you can help to monitor beach life there will be a Strandline Monitoring training event on September 10th starting at 10.30am at Osmington Village Hall followed by a seashore survey in the afternoon. Call Julie Hatcher on 01929 481044 for more information.

Illustrated talk at club

THE new season of Musbury Garden Club opens with an illustrated talk by Lyme Regis-based garden designer Jenny Short on Monday, September 12th from 7.30pm-9pm.

Her training as a ceramics sculptor probably explains why she tends to think of gardens as gigantic pieces of ever-changing sculpture, coloured and textured by an infinite variety of flower and foliage combinations.

In this talk she will tell members how to transform planting from ordinary to wonderful by carefully choosing how you combine your plants. Refreshments and raffle.

The venue is Musbury Village Hall's committee room, and entry is £1.50 for members and £2.50 for non-members.

Ladies enjoy summer fun

OVER the last few months Seaton Women's Institute has enjoyed a programme of interesting activities.

Lunch outings and walks have been so successful it has been decided to make them a regular feature throughout the year.

In July, Alexis Smith gave an amusing account of her life living with muscovy ducks. Members were shown incredible photographs of ducks tightly curled up in their shells just prior to hatching.

Following the summer break the September meeting includes a talk introducing the group to Aloe Vera — A Herbal Remedy on September 20th at 2.15pm in Seaton Methodist Church Hall.

Sallie is efficient at WI members' meet

COLYTON Women's Institute (WI) members' meeting had been arranged by Susan Chaplyn, Penny Cogan, Teresa Hattam, Sallie Herniman, Kate Marchant and Lynda Pallant.

Sallie dealt very efficiently with the business of the meeting and reminded members of the WI Carnival Fashion Show on September 7th in the town hall at 7pm and the book club on September 13th.

Joy Burley read an email from her friend in Zimbabwe and reported the parcels of knitted garments had been received.

Members enjoyed readings of poems and schoolboy howlers from Teresa, Penny and Sallie.

Teresa then introduced Mike Short who proceeded to test the group's brains with a Garden Quiz.

After two sessions the winning group — Jacky Roberts Wake, Joan Freeland, Joan Garner — with her granddaughter Tracey — and Joy Burley were awarded with prizes.

After tea and biscuits, the raffle prizes were drawn and judging of the competition took place.

Flower of the Month was won by Susan Chaplyn, second Jean Underdown and third Linda Boardman.

Evening of good food

AN evening of good company and delicious food was enjoyed by 15 members together with invited partners and friends at the home, in Holditch, of Thorncombe Women's Institute's secretary Nora Arnold.

The next meeting is on Tuesday, September 13th at 7.30pm at Thorncombe Village Hall, when the group welcomes Sarah Cloud's talk on Much More Than Flowers.

Sarah and her colleague will be demonstrating flower arrangements and speaking on the different flowers and techniques used in creating splendid eye catching displays.

Organisers hope that the members' competition for the evening, of a flower arrangement in an eggcup, is well supported and the speaker will judge the winning entries.

Hosts are Julie Honeybourne and Sheila Staples. New members and visitors are welcome.

Contact Julia Snellock 01460 30135 for more information.

MP Neil Parish at memory cafe

THE Axminster Memory Cafe met on Tuesday, August 9th at the Senior Citizens' Centre in Church Street.

It was a chance for the carers, clients and volunteers to meet the local MP Neil Parish.

He spent quite some time chatting to everyone and joined them all in a cup of tea before departing.

Members were also joined by councillor and Axminster mayor Andrew Moulding who took part in some of the activities.

After refreshments were served Peter Smart, the co-ordinator, led some community singing which everyone enjoyed.

The next memory cafe will take place on September 13th at the Senior Citizens' Centre from 2pm to 4pm.

We would be pleased to meet carers and clients to chat, take part in activities and meet community nurse Thomas Feeney if they feel they have a problem and need advice or come along for a cup of tea.

New course for beginners

HONITON Bridge Club will begin a course of weekly evening classes for complete beginners to the game in September.

The classes will take place on Tuesday evenings, and will follow the English Bridge Union's Bridge for All syllabus.

For more details, telephone 01404 46212 or 01395 567390, or email doreen.lomax@btinternet.com.

One year ago Sam Bull had low self esteem and was often depressed because she felt like a failure having been overweight since she was 14 years old. Not being in control of her weight had had a long lasting effect on Sam as she did feel unworthy of love and was always picking up illnesses through her lack of healthy eating.

At that time Sam finally decided she had had enough of feeling this low and, with the encouragement and support of her sister, joined a Slimming World group firstly in Ottery St Mary, but now in Honiton.

"I remember my first night in group. I was certainly very nervous and thought it would be an embarrassing experience. I'm pleased to say that I was wrong, and I was welcomed in the group in the knowledge that we were all there for the same reasons, and I have since gone on to make many friends within the group. I now look forward to going each week".

"I follow the Extra Easy plan which is fab. It allows me to eat whatever I like so long as I take care in how I cook my food and don't over indulge on the treats. One of my favourite meals is potato wedges and mixed veg, but I love the flexibility of the plan which allows me to have fry-ups, syn free chicken and chips and spaghetti Bolognese."

"I have a young daughter and I believe that doing Slimming World has enhanced her chances of eating healthily. She prefers to eat the same as me and always encourages me to eat more fruit and veg"

"Back in the days when I was feeling depressed I was a very inactive person and couldn't stand the thought of doing any activity. I now get my exercise by walking the dog with my daughter and friends, which is now an enjoyable thing rather than a chore!!"

"My confidence has risen and I've even been brave enough to wear shorts this summer which is something I would never have thought I would do!"

"If I look back only a year I would never have thought things could change so much for me. I don't feel a failure anymore and I feel a worthy mum to my beautiful daughter. The Food Optimising plan is a way of life for me now, but don't get me wrong, I still enjoy the odd indulgence but it's in the knowledge that once I am back on plan I know exactly how to shift the pounds again."

If you like to know more about Slimming World go to www.slimmingworld.com or give Sam's Consultant, Sharon, a call on 01404 41513 or 07963337178.

Three great services.....just one business; Alexander Paul Antiques

Did you know that in addition to the award winning and largest selection of French country antique tables available on the internet, Alexander Paul Antiques also offers a fabulous range of bespoke slate topped tables; the right size, the right colour and the right design for you?

Because you design the tables (from our easy to use online design options at www.slatetoptables.com) you can be sure that you have chosen a style and size of table to suit your needs; you can choose to have your table painted to match or contrast your other furnishings.....or if you have a limed oak kitchen we can make a limed oak table to match and complement your other cabinets. If you have more traditional antique furnishings we can make a slate top table from 400 year old antique French oak, finished with a rich and deeply patinated wax. With endless options you can be sure of a quality, hand built and hand finished table (dining table, coffee table, console or serving table) that will exactly fit your needs, and your home.

Please view the wonderful range of options available at www.slatetoptables.com

Having enjoyed a very busy summer we are now fully restocked with a magnificent selection of Antique French country dining tables ready for the autumn. We have stunning tables from four foot to over fourteen feet long! We have beautiful tables in Oak, Ash, Beech, Elm, Cherry, Chestnut and Walnut and all enjoy that soft and lustrous look, known as patination that only comes with age. We also have a great selection of antique coffee tables, serving tables and console tables. All our tables and current stock can be viewed online at www.alexanderpaulantiques.com

The third service we are delighted to offer is a comprehensive antique and modern furniture restoration service. We offer all the traditional skills of cabinet making and French polishing required for the finest antiques, through to the stripping and refinishing of modern furniture; from a broken chair or water stained modern table to a magnificent antique, we can fix it all!

Please feel welcome to bring your furniture needs to us for a pain free solution!

All our stock is available to see online or if you prefer you are welcome to visit us at our extensive Fenny Bridges showrooms just 3 miles west of Honiton on the old A30 where we have plenty of free parking and time to listen!

We look forward to your visit.....

AXMINSTER

CARNIVAL

Axminster Carnival 12th to 17th September 2010

We are pleased to say that we have the misplaced article competition again. We know children and adults enjoy this and are sure the staff in shops like hiding objects in their window. Competition is from the 9th to 18th September and forms will be available from the Library and Bookshop.

Bingo will be held at the Guildhall on Monday 12th with prize money of £100 for the Flyer. We always have excellent raffle prizes at our Bingo so hope lots of people will come along. Coffee morning as usual on Thursday 15th with lots of home baked cakes on sale.

There will be entertainment in the Square on Saturday with a Children's Fancy Dress competition. This will be followed by The Grand Carnival Procession. Procession will be taking the same route as last year. Line up in the usual place – Trafalgar Way – it will proceed up West Street, through Trinity Square then turn right into South Street continuing up Musbury Road, right down King Edward Road back to the start. This is where the Carnival Procession will finish and all entrants will have to complete this circuit to be judged. Presentation of the prize money will take place in the Guildhall at approximately 10 pm. We are hoping that the only Umbrella's we see on the night will be decorated ones taking part. We hold the Collectors licence and only our tins or buckets can be used. These will be available at the Guildhall from 6pm and remember we give back 25% of money you collect to go to your chosen charity.

Fun fair will be on throughout the week. We are hoping that everyone will come along and join in the fun making this a happy Carnival as in previous years.

Unique artist to play cavern

COSMO Jarvis will play Exeter Cavern on Tuesday, September 20th.

Cosmo Jarvis is promoted as a new kind of artist, for whom one world will never be enough.

He is an accomplished filmmaker, a brilliant composer and an exceptional live performer.

Somewhere between perfect pop, deep funk and nonchalant virtuosity, Cosmo inhabits a ground that he is fast beginning to claim as his own as an utterly unique artist.

His debut single of 2011, Gay Pirates kicked up a storm online with over 600,000 views and over 10,000 sales.

If that wasn't a different enough start, the stunning follow up Sure As Hell Not Jesus took a tongue-and-cheek swipe at the Catholic Church.

With his new album, Is The World Strange Or Am I Strange?, due out on September 26th, Mr Jarvis will be taking his material out on the road to spread his infectious message far and wide.

Cosmo Jarvis will be supported by the Bournemouth foursome Fearne who are taking indie pop-rock to a whole new level and winning an army of fans in the process.

With exceptional live performances

it's no wonder they have been on the road supporting artists such as Feeder, Athlete, Nizlopi, Stornoway and Diana Vickers.

Also supporting Cosmo at the Cavern is Richard James, a singer-song writer and performer based in the south west.

Richard's soulful and acoustic style is what everyone is talking about at the moment.

Doors open at 8pm. Tickets cost £7 in advance and can be bought by calling 08444 771 000 or visiting www.midnightmango.co.uk.

More information about the gig is available at www.exetercavern.com.

All-star cast kicks off the new winter season

AN all-star cast including Jessie J, Bill Bailey, Example, Stephen Merchant and Joe Bonamassa perform as Plymouth Pavilions' 20th birthday celebrations continue into its autumn and winter season.

As the new season gets underway, The Westcountry Wedding Show is back on Sunday, September 18th, the Treorchy Male Choir on Saturday, September 24th and the Royal Marines Band Charity Concert presented by Seafarers UK on Wednesday, September 28th.

On to another month and winner of the 2011 Chortle Best Headliner Award and Best British Radio Sitcom at the comedy.co.uk Awards, funny man Milton Jones brings his latest tour Lion Whisperer to the city on Thursday, October 6th.

From the producers of Horrible Histories and Horrible Science, The Birmingham Stage Company bring the classic Jungle Book story to life with eight performances running from Wednesday, October 12th to Saturday, October 15th.

Then, hailed as one of the greatest young blues guitarists of his generation, Joe Bonamassa arrives on Wednesday, October 19th.

The nation's favourite darts game show with Bob Anderson, John Lowe and Eric Bristow, Bullseye rolls in on Friday, October 21st, and the legendary Specials return on Sunday, October 23rd.

Selling over one million albums and three million singles worldwide, Jessie J performs a sell out gig on Thursday, October 27th ahead of Carnival Du Vampires Rock who will be performing some of the greatest rock anthems ever on Friday, October 28th.

The man who gave us Rhinestone Cowboy, Glen Campbell kicks off November and dubstep superstar Katy B performs on Wednesday, November 2nd.

It's comedy up next, with Stephen Merchant's first stand-up show Hello Ladies on Thursday, November 3rd.

OUT & ABOUT

● MR Stink is a musical adaptation of the comedy star's award-winning children's novel. The Little Britain and Come Fly with Me star, David Walliams, has written the smelliest book of all time breaking, while the stage show breaks new ground by being the first ever interactive scratch 'n' sniff family show.

Each audience member will be given a free scratch 'n' sniff booklet bringing Mr Stink pongingly to life.

Chloe doesn't like school very much. She isn't as cool as the other kids, no iPhone, no DS and no friends. Then she meets Mr Stink – the local tramp.

Yes, he smells a bit but he's the only person who's ever been nice to her, including her mother who wants to be the local MP and is trying to rid the streets of its homeless.

About to lose her only friend, Chloe finds Mr Stink a secret hiding place – but is there more to him than meets the nose?

It has been adapted and directed by Matthew White with music composed by Matt Brind.

Mr Stink runs from Tuesday, September 20th to Sunday, September 25th.

Tickets are now on sale and are available by calling the box office on 01392 493493, or visit www.exeternorthcott.co.uk.

● DUE to popular demand, comic and musician Bill Bailey has added a second Plymouth date to his live show Dandelion Mind at Plymouth Pavilions on Monday, November 7th as well as Sunday, November 6th.

Tickets are on sale now and cost £29.50. To book contact the box office on 0845 146 1460.

● THE United Reformed Church Hall in Cross Street, Seaton, will be the venue for a talk by Ben Joslin on Wednesday, October 12th.

Mr Joslin will talk about Nelson's Signal System starting at 7.30pm.

Axe Valley Heritage Association is hosting the talk and the group says everyone is welcome to attend.

● AS autumnal shades start to colour the Otter Valley, Otterton Mill is excited to announce a new season of events.

A packed season is ahead, with a host of family events to inspire all ages, commencing with the welcome return of Archaeological Finds Day. Other family events include the yearly Harvest Festival, Apple and Game Day and spooky restaurant specials over the Halloween Weekend.

Full details of the new season are available online at www.ottertonmill.com

● THE next event to be held by Cancer Research UK's Seaton and Axmouth branch is a jumble sale at Seaton Town Hall on Saturday, October 1st. Doors open at 10am and close at 1pm. Admission is 30p per adult. Children under 14 get in for free.

Slava's theatrical show back in UK by demand

SLAVA'S Snowshow will return to the UK for the first time in three years and is coming to the Theatre Royal Plymouth by popular demand from Tuesday, September 27th until Saturday, October 1st.

Slava's Snowshow is the internationally acclaimed winner of the Time Out, Olivier and Drama Desk awards for most unique theatrical experience.

It is a visual masterpiece loved by children and adults alike. A combination of theatrical clowning and stunning spectacle, Slava's Snowshow is performed by a highly renowned company of clowns led by Slava Polunin.

The show creates a dream-like world where one extraordinary image melts into another culminating in a stunning finale leaving the audience literally knee-deep in snow.

Influenced by artists such as Chaplin, Marcel Marceau and Engibarov, Slava Polunin and his company has taken clowning out of the world of circus, and brought it to theatre lovers, fellow practitioners and families worldwide.

Welsh singing star daydreams on tour

KATHERINE Jenkins, the record-breaking multi-platinum selling mezzo-soprano, brings her UK Daydream tour to Plymouth Pavilions on Tuesday, February 7th 2012.

Taking in 21 cities across the UK, Katherine will be performing up close and personal for her first tour in three years.

Coinciding with the release of her latest album, Daydream, released on October 10th via Warner Bros Records, the album is her most personal to date drawing together music and songs she loves from across classical, traditional, folk and easy pop that have inspired her over the course of her life.

Recorded in Los Angeles and London in spring this year, Katherine has once again teamed up with John Shanks in the US — credits include Take That and Westlife and Katherine's hit 2010 single Tell Me I'm Not Dreaming — and Simon Franglen in London.

Capturing what audiences love about Katherine — her astonishing vocal range, her championing of great songs, always willing to test new ground — Daydream reflects on the exciting stage that she now has reached in her life and career.

Stand out tracks on the album include the stunning Shanks produced Break It To My Heart, a deeply moving interpretation of the Celtic classic Black Is The Colour, I Dreamed A Dream from Les Misérables rarely performed in French, a brand new composition of Ave Maria and Katherine's stirring tribute to service men and women through the ages A Flower Tells A Story.

The Daydream tour will also see Katherine perform some of her best-known songs that she has performed and recorded over her last seven albums including tracks from her debut album Premiere through to her best selling album Believe.

Katherine said: "I had an amazing time on my first arena tour but Daydream is a very intimate album and I wanted my tour to reflect that.

"It's a chance for my fans to see me up close and personal in some of the UK's most beautiful theatres."

As one of the UK's best-loved artists, with album sales in excess of five million copies, her new album, Daydream signals the start of the next stage of her life.

To book tickets, contact the Plymouth Pavilions box office on 0845 146 1460 or visit www.plymouthpavilions.com.

Museum's second week of walks

LYME Regis Museum is currently holding its second walks week of the year — a series of walks led by local experts, each lasting about 90 minutes and with a maritime theme.

Today Fred Humphrey will be dressed in the guise of Admiral Croft, Jane Austen's character from Persuasion, to guide a walk around Lyme as Jane Austen would have seen it.

Meet at the lifeboat station at 2.30pm. Local boatman Ken Gollop takes a tour of the Cobb, Lyme's historic harbour, on Wednesday September 7th.

A true raconteur, Ken will talk about Fishermen, Fossils and French Lieutenant's Woman.

Meet at the lifeboat station at 2.30pm.

Starting at the boat building academy at 11am on Thursday, September 8th boatbuilder Gail McGarva will lead a walk called Boats and Their Stories — visiting the boats of Lyme at the academy, the gig shed and the harbour.

At 2pm on Saturday, September 10th meeting at the lifeboat station and taking the Cobb as vantage point, Richard Bull, an expert on past industries of Lyme, will show how and where stone was quarried from Lyme's beaches and cliffs to be traded around the world.

Friends until that one day

ONE DAY (12A)

BASED on the best-selling book by David Nicholls, One Day has been described as the romance of the modern century, so it's little surprise that the big-screen adaptation has been one of the eagerly anticipated films of the year.

Anne Hathaway and Jim Sturgess take the leads as bookish Yorkshire lass Emma Morley and charming ladies' man Dexter Mayhew, who have a drunken encounter on their graduation on St Swithin's Day in 1988, and make a pact to remain friends.

"When I sleep with someone, I either end up crying or weeping. We might bump into each other in the future. We'll just be friends," remarks Em, after a lame attempt at seducing Dexter, to which he replies: "Let's keep in touch."

True to their words, the two friends stay in touch throughout the next few years, as Dex travels around the world while Emma slaves away in a Mexican restaurant in London. Their friendship is tested, first in 1992, when they decide on a spontaneous whim to go away on holiday together.

Despite the friends working in London — Dex channelling a young Jonathan Ross as his TV career hits a peak, while Em, who is now dating stand-up comic Ian (Rafe Spall), trains as a teacher — they often lose touch before reconnecting again.

Unsurprisingly, the film, directed by An Education's Lone Scherfig with a script by Nicholls, rushes through the characters' lives throughout 20 years, as they deal with the joys and heartbreaks of life.

The challenge of the adaptation depends largely on the chemistry between Hathaway and Sturgess, but all too often, her accent distracts from that.

Hathaway — who has been described as too glamorous for the part — does a pretty good job, although she switches between Yorkshire and London accents, with her American twang slipping out in certain scenes. The casting of Sturgess is a surprise but rather spot on.

Although Spall steals the show as Ian, the other characters, such as Romola Garai as Dex's wife Sylvie and Patricia Clarkson as his mother, feel largely underused.

The book is so well-loved that it is tough to do it justice, but despite everything, it's an able adaptation capturing the spirit of the book, which fans will still enjoy.

CONDITIONS OF ACCEPTANCE

1. Orders for advertisements are accepted subject to the provisions of the British Code of Advertising Practice and any notices to that effect.
2. The Publisher shall not be liable for any loss or damage sustained by any advertiser in printed matter, however caused, if distributed by any newspaper or other publication in which any advertisement is scheduled to appear.
3. In the event of an error, omission or omission in the printing of the advertisement the Publisher will endeavour to rectify the error or omission as far as possible, but no responsibility shall be accepted for any loss or damage sustained by any advertiser in printed matter, however caused, if distributed by any newspaper or other publication in which any advertisement is scheduled to appear.
4. The right is reserved to refuse to accept or to continue the insertion of any advertisement, even though accepted and paid for, at the discretion of the Publisher's standards.
5. The Publisher reserves the right to accept or to continue the insertion of any advertisement, even though accepted and paid for, at the discretion of the Publisher's standards.
6. The Publisher reserves the right to accept or to continue the insertion of any advertisement, even though accepted and paid for, at the discretion of the Publisher's standards.
7. The Publisher reserves the right to accept or to continue the insertion of any advertisement, even though accepted and paid for, at the discretion of the Publisher's standards.
8. The Publisher reserves the right to accept or to continue the insertion of any advertisement, even though accepted and paid for, at the discretion of the Publisher's standards.
9. The Publisher reserves the right to accept or to continue the insertion of any advertisement, even though accepted and paid for, at the discretion of the Publisher's standards.
10. It is the responsibility of the advertiser to ensure that the content of any advertisement is correct. The Publisher does not accept responsibility for any advertisement published and printed incorrectly after the initial insertion unless corrected by the advertiser.
11. Your claims will be provided, on request, as proof of insertion. Full weather copies will not be provided.
12. Minimum advertisement size is 10cm x 10cm.
13. All advertising copy to be received by 12 noon on Friday with the exception of jobs which can be accepted up to 11am on Monday.
14. Cancellation: No advertisement shall be cancelled after the above deadline. Cancellations must be confirmed in writing.
15. In the event that any advertisement is not received by the publisher the advertiser shall be responsible for the cost of the advertisement.
16. Payment of monthly accounts is due 30 days from the date of service. The Publisher reserves the right to charge interest at 5% per month per annum compound above basic rate from the date of payment.
17. The placing of an order for the insertion of an advertisement shall amount to acceptance of the above conditions. Any conditions stipulated by an agency or advertiser shall be void in so far as they are in conflict with these.

For more details

THE new Hyundai i20 Blue has joined the ever-growing ranks of tax-evading cars, with a CO2 output of just 98gallons per kilometre being the lowest of any car the company makes.

The efficient 1.4-litre diesel engine also means that the i20 qualifies for free entry into the London congestion charging zone, and is completely exempt from road tax for the foreseeable future.

The i20 Blue is effectively an entirely new variant, taking the 89bhp, 111g/km 1.4 CDTi engine from the diesel i20 Style and mating it to the Comfort trim level, usually only available with a 74bhp version of the same 1.4 diesel.

Hyundai's Blue Drive technology is responsible for the decrease in emissions in the i20 Blue.

To achieve a 12 per cent reduction in CO2, it has a stop-start system to save fuel in traffic, low rolling resistance tyres and an array of aerodynamic improvements.

Hyundai claims that a full tank of fuel could carry the i20 Blue more than 750 miles at the combined fuel economy of 76.4mpg, though if you're willing to cruise at 60mph on the motorway you're likely to see numbers even higher than that.

Standard equipment on the i20 Blue includes 15-inch alloy wheels, Bluetooth connectivity with voice recognition, electric and heated door mirrors, electric windows all round, air conditioning, central locking and steering wheel audio controls.

The i20 Blue follows the i10 Blue, which was released earlier this year.

Market trends show that there is a growing market for more economical versions of popular models, and the i20 certainly boasts numbers to tempt buyers.

It's on sale now at an on-the-road price of £13,195.

FOOTBALL EXPRESS CUP — AXMOUTH FC

An emphatic cup win

By BEN MIDDLETON

ben@tindlenews.co.uk

AXMOUTH secured a quarter final spot in the Football Express Cup with an emphatic 6-1 victory at home against Feniton Reserves.

In a game played in very good spirit both sides started well and home keeper Andrew Smart lived up to his name with smart saves in the fifth and 10th minutes either side of a Stuart Aykroyd effort which was cleared off the line.

Yet another fine save from the keeper in the 14th minute kept it level until Scott Dyer opened the scoring for the home side after 20 minutes following up a Matt Ellis header and instinctively hitting home the rebound.

Just four minutes later and Axmouth doubled their lead when impressive captain Christian Burridge set up the first of three assists to play in Jamie Hughes who evaded two defenders before a cool finish.

As Axmouth took full control Dyer and the continually threatening Asa Sandman both spurned chances before a fine passing move ended with Burridge crossing for Dyer to score his second and the home side's third just after the hour mark. All seemed to be plain sailing but Feniton took advantage of a lack of concentration and got a deserved goal with the last kick of the first half with a fine strike from the edge of the area.

Sadly for them that was as close as they were going to get as Axmouth came out firing again after the break and duly dominated from therein.

Jamie Hughes played in Reece Hales after just five minutes of the restart to slot home in only his second game back from injury before leaving the pitch after yet another highly promising display.

It took just a few minutes for substitute Charlie Clarke to have his first effort well saved by the keeper but as the visitors tired he made no mistake with two further efforts inside the last five minutes, firstly hooking in from an acute angle from yet another Burridge assist and netting his second after Dan Jeeves played him in to calmly lob the keeper and make it six.

Manager Laurie Forino was delighted with his team's performance especially as he had to make six changes from last week's wining side. He said: "I thought the lads were great again and the back four of Burridge, Challis, Ellis and Sweeney were very solid today and Juan Martin had a good first start since signing in the summer.

"We played some really good stuff at times and continue to improve and showed the benefit of having a bigger squad to handle injuries and absence. In what was another solid team display there were several good performances but Jamie Hughes just gets man of the match award."

AXE VALLEY BOULES LEAGUE

WITH a couple of results still to come in for Division One, Axe Cliff A look to be favourites to take second spot, but a final week trip to Golden Hind B won't make their task easy.

At the bottom, Harbour A host Kings and Queens in a relegation decider, with Kings and Queens needing two points from the match to stay up.

The Division Two title is a straight battle between Gerrard Arms B and New Inn Flyers; the latter team's victory at Royal Clarence B has guaranteed that these two teams will take the promotion spots.

At the bottom, Kingfisher Rebels and Kings Jesters look favourite to finish in the relegation spots, but the possibility of only one team being relegated means there's plenty still to play for.

With Harbour Fourplay's surprise loss to Harbour Sea, the Division Three title looks to be heading for already-promoted Royal Clarence A, who need at most a point from their final game to be crowned champions. Third place may well also be promoted; Golden Wonders cannot finish worse than third, but both Kings Cavaliers and Seaton Town FC B can still tie with them.

Division One: Kings and Queens 2 Golden Hind B 3; Ship Castaways 3 Harbour A 2; Whitford Warriors 4 Kings Arms A 1; Axe Cliff A 3 Beer Club 2; Colyton FC 5 Lamb (mutton) 0.

Division Two: Kingfisher A 3 Kingfisher Rebels 2; Royal Clarence B 2 New Inn Flyers 3; Kings Jesters v Seaton Town FC A postponed.

Division Three: Harbour Sea 3 Royal Clarence A 2; Seaton Town FC B 3 Kings Cavaliers 2; Golden Wonders 3 Lamb Visitors 2; Lamb High Flyers 4 Red Balls 1; Harbour Fourplay 1 Harbour Sea 4.

HONITON GOLF CLUB

Golfers play novelty game of three clubs

VICE captain Paul Dimond decided to introduce a bit of novelty into the men's Sunday morning performances — a better ball competition with a bag restricted to three clubs and a putter.

Most players choices seemed to alight on a three wood, a seven iron and a wedge, with those same members surprising themselves that this was all they actually needed to get round the course.

In fact one member realised that he'd been playing all the wrong clubs all along. The winning scores also proved that limiting club selection was no hindrance to exceptional play with the pairing of Tim Morris and Steve Waller coming first with 41 points. Phil Wall and Max Pipe were second with 40 points leaving Bob Cleal and Jim Wallis third with 39 points.

The annual Walker Cup was played on Bank Holiday Monday with a full field.

The good weather and the course in excellent condition showed in the scoring. Club captain Tim Avery paid tribute to his vice captain Paul Dimond, who with Mary Anning, had done the card checking.

He then welcomed Bob and Pat Walker who presented their cup to this year's winning couple Linda and John Northover with an excellent score of 44 points. Second place, with 42 points on count back, was Sharon Dacre and David Rouse with Mabs Baker and Paul Hill in third place losing out on count back.

Fourth place was Gerda Brown and Mark Gillard with 41 points on countback from two other couples.

Three pairs received 11 balls each for scoring a two all on the second hole. They were Jan and John Dickinson, Mabs Baker and Paul Hill and Sally and Trevor Chapman.

A great day was had by all at the Ladies Invitation Day on Wednesday, August 31st.

Eighty ladies played in this 4BBB Stableford competition including 40 visitors from 22 clubs, and high scores were the order of the day. First prize winners were Sue Ritchie and guest Gail Reed (Tavistock) with 48 points while second prize went to Olwen Eaton and her guest Ulla Brooster (Wallasey, Liverpool) with 43 points.

Third, fourth, fifth and sixth places were each separated by one point with Julie Eyles and guest Barbara Perriton (Staddon Heights) on 42 points, Mona Carter and Pat Goodie (Teignmouth) with 41 points, Chris Pearce and Elizabeth Hall (Tiverton) on 40 points, and Thelma Neate and Pat Jarvis (east Devon) on 39 points (c/b).

Other prizes were given for nearest the pin, nearest the line and twos. The event raised £75 for Breakthrough Breast Cancer.

The weekend medal was won by Sue Long and the Duncan Trophy by Linda Blundell.

In his swansong to Honiton Golf Club former seniors' captain Ben Laite organised this year's Henry Young Salver with military precision.

After the early morning mist cleared a beautiful day was enjoyed by 178 players in 66 teams representing 15 different clubs from Devon, Dorset and Somerset.

Played every year since its inception in 1980 the competition is a Stableford format with one score to count on each hole which provides a relaxed and enjoyable day's golf.

First off the tee were the Honiton team of Jack Phillips, George Smith and David Ive who posted the target to beat of 42 points. This turned out to be a popular number with five of the top six teams recording the same score providing more work for the scorers to determine the placings.

The overall win was, however, claimed by the visiting team from Downes Crediton Golf Club who left the rest trailing in their wake with an exceptional score of 47 points.

Prizes for the other visiting teams went to Teignmouth 42 points, Okehampton 42, DMVGA 41 and Dainton Park 41.

For the home team's first spot was claimed by the trio of Fred Thomas, Chris Street and John Chew 42 points on count back from Tony Proudfoot, Ron Cooper and David Beer and Jack Phillips, George Smith and David Ive. In fourth place were Vic Wood, Mike Stroud and Derek Herrington with 41 points.

SEATON BOWLS CLUB

Members host Grange Bowls Club on tour

SEATON Bowls Club entertained Grange Bowls Club, on annual tour, in a five-mixed-rink game on Tuesday, August 30th.

Grange won by 97 shots to 89 and top Seaton rink was Ann Wright, Bob Benfield, Ken Russell and Rhonda Follenfant.

In the men's over 60s triples league games played on August 31st, the A team lost at Culloompton by 24 shots to 34.

Top Seaton triple was David Ford, Keith Miles and Alan Wood. However the B team beat Belmont B by 48 shots to 27.

Top triple was Richard Whitworth, Bob Scull and David Yardley.

Seaton lost a six-mixed-rink match against Bridport on September 1st by 110 shots to 135. Top rink was Ian Manchester, Ann Joyner, Fred Dart and Rhonda Follenfant.

On September 2nd the ladies lost their over fifties triples league game against Bitton Park by 33 shots to 27. Top triple was Shirley Fewtrell, Barbara Harden and Joan Miles.

The club welcomed Avon and Somerset Constabulary's touring bowls team on September 3rd in a men's seven-rink match.

Due to a shortage of men Seaton had to provide three ladies in one of Seaton's rinks.

The constabulary team has visited Seaton several times since 1996.

On this occasion, the constabulary won four of the seven rinks with an overall win of 148 shots to 129.

The ladies were in one of the winning Seaton rinks.

Seaton Bowls Club held its Bank Holiday charity drive on August 29th in support of Seaton Carnival.

The event raised a total amount of £140, which was presented to the carnival queen, and the drive was won by George Mabon with plus 13 shots.

FENITON BOWLING CLUB

Men's over 60s teams suffer losses whilst away

THE men's over 60s teams both suffered losses in away matches.

The A team lost by 24-35 at Okehampton, thereby ending any slim hopes of promotion to division 2.

The B team lost to Sidmouth by 33-34, gaining just a single point for a tied rink.

This means that they will have to wait until the last match of the season to secure the necessary points to avoid relegation to Division Seven.

The mixed team completed the double against Ottery St Mary, winning at Ottery by 97-75.

The winning rinks were; Frank Jones, Eddie Cox, Glynda Blackmore and Ian Veitch 24-9, Gill Smith, George Skinner, John Livings and Les Ley 21-17, Bob Crowe-

Swords, Anita Pritchard, Eileen Tuck and Alan Smith 17-15 and Ted Goodenough, Bonnie Halse, Ruby Veitch and Tony Kury 18-17.

They also completed the double over Culloompton at home in an evening match winning by 77-50.

The winning rinks were; Bob Crowe-Swords, Tony Young, Lynda Dommett and Kevin Lovering 27-7, Norma Cox, George Skinner, Les Ley and Roger Smith 21-16 and Frank Jones, Eddie Cox, Robin Cooke and Sue Kury.

Feniton have the honour of staging the Devon County Bowls Finals on Saturday, September 10th and Sunday, September 11th.

Anyone interested in bowls is more than welcome to come along and watch some of the best bowlers competing for the county titles.

FIRST WITH THE SPORT EVERY WEEK

CHARDSTOCK BOWLING CLUB

ON Friday, August 19th a team of 12 men travelled to Ilminster Bowling Club to play a three-rink friendly match.

The final score was 56-54 to Chardstock.

On Thursday, August 25th the visitors were Queen Camel Bowling Club to play a four-rink mixed friendly which ended a win for the home team by one shot 75-74.

The club held inter club competition the Silver Jubilee Cup, on August 28th.

It was won by B Vickers and N Denslow and the runners up were M Rogers and A Day.

On Tuesday, August 30th four members of Chardstock Bowling Club's ladies were invited to play in a Section Three Ladies v Devon County Ladies match at Budleigh Salterton Bowling Club.

A very enjoyable afternoon was had.

On Friday, September 2nd a team of 12 men travelled to Madeira Bowling Club, near Exmouth, to play a four-rink triples match. The final score was 84-44 to Madeira.

AXE VALLEY RUNNERS

ON Sunday morning Axe Valley Runners member Luke Reed left his home in Kilminster at 4.30am to make his way to the Cotwolds water park for a sprint triathlon.

With a very heavy shower an hour prior to the race it made conditions on the bike slightly difficult but Luke was very pleased to finish 24th overall out of 459 and 4th in his age group.

He completed the 750m lake swim in 12.53, 20k bike in 30.18 and 5k run in 18.18 giving him an overall time of 1.03.27.

Richard Easton also continued his excellent season finishing 7th overall in 58.57 and 1st in his age group.

Harry Moore was delighted to win the oldest runner trophy in the Ash Fearsome Five run for the fourth year on the trot. He completed the five mile race in 74:14.

Runners travel to take part in seven-mile race

ON Sunday, August 28th Graham Reeves and Nick Bradley-Carter of Honiton Running Club took part in the Battle of Sedgemoor 10k road race in Langport.

It was pretty much a perfect day for running and there was a good field of 448 runners. It's mostly flat and a fast course and they both had great results. Graham did extremely well considering it is only his second 10K race and his first on road. He was 118th in a time of 43 minutes 40 seconds. Nick was also very pleased to clock up a new personal best time though it was only by one second. He was 145th in 45:27.

The day after, on Monday, August 29th five Honiton runners travelled to Bampton to take part in the Quarryman's Trail 10k multi-terrain race. This is a low key event which is part of Bampton Open Day and there were only 58 runners taking part.

The race has a very tough start with runners being taken up hill for two miles. The race does become slightly easier from that point but there are still a few short sharp hills to be tackled.

Bruce and Tracey Strawbridge were tackling the race for the first time and both were delighted with their results. Bruce was 10th overall in a time of 46:38. Tracey posted a cracking time of 71:53 and was even more delighted when she found out that the race measured more than the promised 10k.

Once again her fast sprint finish produced success as she overtook a lady just metres before the line. The race has become a favourite for Steve and Judy Davey and Steve came 14th in 48:12 managing to knock about a minute off his previous time. Judy was equally pleased with coming 23rd in 54:04 which is exactly the same time as last year. This was the second time John Burgess has attempted the run and he was slightly reticent as last time he sustained an injury and was out of action for a while. This year he not only successfully avoided that fate but he managed a category prize as well. He was 25th in 54:27.

On Sunday, September 4th several Honiton runners took part in the

Treggy 7. This is a seven-mile road run around Launceston and Honiton's runners, plus supporter Jo Davey, ventured across the border into Cornwall to take part with the other 375 entrants. Bruce Strawbridge had yet another cracking run and came 48th in 47 minutes 44 seconds.

Steve Davey was disappointed to come in quite so far behind Bruce but he still managed 83rd place in 50:38. Judy Davey was next back and was very pleased with her efforts coming 130th in 54:07. She was pleased to have kept ahead of Nick Bradley-Carter whose favourite terrain is road. He came 160th in 55:17.

Olivia Higginson enjoyed the unfamiliar Cornish scenery and came 276th in 1:05:14. Tracey Strawbridge came 331st in 1:11:48.

Vanessa Glyn-Jones admitted she had quite enjoyed the run and would have probably enjoyed it even more if she'd been a bit fitter but she was still pleased with her 348th place in 1:15:11.

AXMINSTER OUTDOOR BOWLS CLUB

IN the Over 60s Devon League, Axminster Outdoor Bowls Club had an excellent home win against Honiton (37-31) with both rinks winning to claim maximum points — L Monk, John Chance, and Brian Clark (18-15) and David Harris, Frank Bridge, and Bob Sherborne (19-16).

This was followed by a narrow defeat at top-of-the-league club Tiverton (35-37) despite a good win for John Chance, Roger Legg, and Bob Sherborne (17-15).

William Cook, David Harris, and Brian Clark lost narrowly (18-22) after being ten shots up at one stage.

In the mixed friendlies Axminster lost two home games — first against Dukeswell (48-84) although John Chance, Ann Clayton, and Marion Harris did well to win (18-15) and Eve Cole, Chris Todd, and Brian Clark tied (14-14).

The club also lost against Taunton Bowls Club (65-99) despite winning on two of the four rinks played — Brenda Edwards, Mike Preston, Joan Quick, and David Harris (19-14) and Les Monk, Phil White, Chris Todd, and Pam Clark (26-21).

The match at Honiton was rained off and Chardstock Ladies were unable to raise a side for the game at Axminster.

Axminster Ladies suffered a heavy defeat at South Petherton (17-52).

AXMINSTER TOWN CRICKET CLUB

1st XI v South Devon
(won by 7 wickets)

PAUL Miller won the toss and gave South Devon the opportunity to bat first in this the final league game of the season.

Hart and Carter found scoring difficult against Seward and Richards and although they put together an opening partnership of 50 it took some 16 overs and once that had been broken the visitors were never allowed to build a challenging total.

Mark Richards ended his 13 overs with a five-wicket haul while Joel Seward 1-28, Matt Pile 1-15 and the consistent Alex Wraight 2-25 all gave good support. The total of 142 never looked to be enough and once David Murnane had set the tone with four boundaries in his second over Axminster cruised to a 7 wicket victory.

Danny Larcombe helped David put on 72 for the first wicket, skipper Paul Miller was then unfortunately run out but following David's dismissal for 67 with the score on 110 it was left to Joel Seward (17 not out) and Tristan Wakeley (21 not out) to see the side home.

The win ensured they ended in 7th place and would again compete in the B division in 2012.

2nd XI v Ipplepen (away)

Axminster 2nd XI were always going to find it tough against the league leaders and although Peter Kiy battled hard for his 33 only David Hayball (26) and Max Felgate (18) offered much resistance and the side were bowled out for 139.

Ipplepen confirmed their status as champions with a six-wicket victory and the Axminster 2nd XI are destined for the D Division next season.

Sparkling victories secure promotions

By KEVIN FAHEY

sport.pulmans@tindlenews.co.uk

THE champagne corks were popping at both Honiton and Ottery St Mary Cricket Clubs on Saturday after sparkling victories secured promotion.

In the most exciting finish of the day Honiton were taken to the limit by a resurgent Babbacombe, playing with a style and determination that belied a season that has ended in relegation from E Division.

Chasing a target of 175 for victory Honiton were made to work hard to secure the 20 points that guaranteed them second spot behind Filleigh as they won by just two wickets with a score of 176-8.

Honiton skipper Kevin Kelly said: "This hasn't been an easy season by any means and there has been a lot of hard graft so I am really chuffed that we have gone up.

"It was a brilliant team effort and everyone chipped in. On Saturday Babbacombe were really up for it and if they had played like all season then they wouldn't have been relegated."

Honiton seemed to be cruising at 61-0 but then they lost a couple of quick wickets and with just six overs remaining still needed 30 runs for victory.

Fortunately Kelly had held himself back and delivered a true skipper's innings.

"I finished on 21 not out which isn't a brilliant score but was probably the hardest innings I have ever played," added Kelly.

"The light was really bad and it was hard to pick up the ball. But we got there and with the second XI also winning promotion it has been a great season for the club, especially as we have so many young players in the team."

It was also Honiton's second successive season of promotion and Kelly's first as skipper having only taken on the job this year.

"I am pretty sure that it is the first time in the club's history that both teams have won promotion and will be going up together," said Kelly.

Other players to impress on Saturday were bowler Phil Tansley, who claimed 4-48 while opener Joe Dixon scored a solid 33 to get the innings off to a good start.

Ottery only needed a handful of points to seal promotion in D Division and hold off the challenge from Feniton and they duly did that and more with an emphatic victory over Whitchurch.

After restricting Whitchurch to 142 Ottery's batsmen knocked off the runs for the loss of six wickets to win by five wickets and collect 20 points and claim the second promotion spot behind champions Ipplepen.

Ottery skipper Jody Clements said: "With the second team having also won promotion the champagne was out in the club house on Saturday night."

"Last year we only missed promotion by ten points and after a shaky start this season we have done even better."

Ottery chairman Robert Bradshaw-

Smith was quick to praise his skipper, who only took over the reins last season.

"Like many of the team Jody is a local lad who has come through the colts system and is a very good and determined cricketer," said Bradshaw-Smith.

"When he took over the captaincy in 2010 we were in a bit of disarray and he has done really well for a young lad. As chairman I'm very proud of seeing Jody progress through the ranks and leading the first team to promotion."

Elsewhere Seaton's disappointing season ended with another defeat against Ashburton to consign them to relegation from C Division while in the B Division a resurgent Axminster ended on a high to beat top club South Devon by seven wickets and move into seventh place.

Dave Murnane was the top scorer on 67 after Mark Richards claimed 5-49 to bowl out South Devon for 142.

CARLSBERG SOUTH WEST PENINSULA

Moving forward despite defeat, says Self

By KEVIN FAHEY

sport.pulmans@tindlenews.co.uk

Division One (East)
Axminster Town 1 Budleigh
Salterton 2

AXMINSTER boss Ray Self believes the team is moving in the right direction despite this latest defeat.

He said: "I don't think it will be long before we are picking up points. "We are competing well and our performances are improving.

"We are now starting to get some of the cricket players back and I'll be looking for us to get something out of Wednesday's game at Exmouth Town."

Budleigh player-manager Danny Williams opened the scoring in the first half only for Tigers substitute Leo Maguire to equalise just three minutes after the re-start firing in the rebound after his initial shot had been saved.

Self added: "We had a really good spell after that and at worst we should have held on to the 1-1 if not gone on to win the game."

Sadly Williams had other ideas as he netted his second goal of the match after a goalmouth mix-up.

Self continued: "We gifted them the winner but overall I was pleased with our performance."

Ottery St Mary 0
Alphington 4

Otters manager David Weeks wasn't hiding behind any excuses after this latest setback.

He said: "The scoreline may have flattered Alphington but we deserved to lose. We were poor and simply did not turn up."

Carl Wilson and Dan Jewell both emerged with credit but the majority of the team will have to wait to see if they keep their place in the side as Weeks is working hard to bring in some new faces ahead of tomorrow's match at home to the University.

"There could be some changes for Wednesday's match but we'll have to wait and see," added Weeks.

DEVON & EXETER LEAGUE

CULM United managed to take Beer Albion to extra time in the East Devon Senior Cup before losing 3-1 to the fishermen.

Chris Long, Luke Bartlett and Justin Adkin scored the Beer goals.

Topsham Town led Feniton 3-0 at half-time but almost let it slip before edging in 3-2.

Matt Anderson, Mark Saunders and Lewis Heaver scored the tops goals, Liam Ogborne and Paul Dowling netted for Fenny.

Pete Nelson scored twice for Awliscombe in their 3-1 Football Express Cup victory against Westex Reserves, and both Scott Dyer and Charlie Clarke netted twice for Axmouth United in a 6-1 romp against Feniton Reserves.

The Lords XI hit five goals in the last 25 minutes to knock out Uplowman Reserves 7-2, while Cheriton Fitzpaine almost gave away a four-goal first half lead before winning 5-3 against Priory.

Challenge falls short

*Devon Cricket League
E Division*

Kilmington (3 points) 131-1 drew with Uplyme and Lyme Regis
(11 points) 271-1

IN the end Uplyme and Lyme Regis' valiant challenge for promotion fell just short as they trailed close rivals Honiton by just ten points as the season reached an exciting climax.

Kilmington, who only fielded eight players, frustrated their ambitions in Saturday's final game with a dogged batting display. But ultimately even had Uplyme taken all 20 points they would still have just fallen short.

Filleigh topped the E Division with 273 points from their 18 games with Honiton second on 269 points and Uplyme and Lyme Regis third on 259 points.

Nonetheless, they weren't to know that as the game progressed and their batsmen certainly gave them a magnificent start to the game with centuries for both Rob Thorn and Steve Bately.

Once Mark Batey fell for 15 at 44-1 Uplyme didn't lose another wicket as Thorn ended on 114 not out and Batey on 11 in a massive score of 271-1.

Kilmington's batsmen have piled up the runs on plenty of occasions this season but short of numbers this always looked a chase too far but they can take great pride in reaching 131-1 with Dave Cook unbeaten on 73 and John Lavender not out on 71.

Uplyme skipper Ashley Caddy tried everything he could to force a breakthrough using eight bowlers in various permutations but they just couldn't find a way through Kilmington's dogged resistance as the game ended in a draw.
